

Table of contents

Introduction: Legitimation, resistance and discursive struggles in contemporary China Qing Cao	1
PART 1. Political discourse
Chapter 1 Disembodied words: The ritualistic quality of political discourse in the era of Jiang Zemin Maurizio Marinelli	25
Chapter 2 'Stability overwhelms everything': Analysing the legitimating effect of the stability discourse since 1989 Peter Sandby-Thomas	47
Chapter 3 A decade of change in China: A corpus-based discourse analysis of ten government work reports Yufang Qian & Hailong Tian	77
Chapter 4 It's a small world after all? Simulating the future world order at the Shanghai Expo Florian Schneider	97
PART 2. Media discourse
Chapter 5 Discourse of journalism and legitimacy in post-reform China Jingrong Tong	123
Chapter 6 China's Road to Revival : "Writing" the PRC's struggles for modernization Florian Schneider & Yih-Jye Hwang	145

Chapter 7
China's soft power: Formulations, contestations and communication	171
Qing Cao
Chapter 8
Issues in discourse approach to social transformations in China: A synopsis	195
Hailong Tian & Paul Chilton
Author biography	209
Index	211